The special meeting of CWA - RMC 7750 was called to order by President, Henry Hanna at 12:05 PM. Discussion on the floor regarding the open positions of Secretary and Treasurer. If these positions are not filled the chapter will be forced to disband. Discussion included duties of the Treasurer and a flow sheet was provided for clarity many questions were asked and answered. Several members showed interest in the position but Elouise Leber volunteered. Vice President, Arnie Schenck made a motion to accept the nomination, seconded by Mary Drobnitch.

Vice President, Arnie Schenck administered the oath of office for Treasurer of RMC - CWA 7750, Elouise Leber. The chapter received a volunteer for Secretary by Kay Kautz, no other volunteers came forward. The motion to nominate Kay Kautz was made by Mary Drobnitch, seconded by John Smerker.

Vice President, Arnie Schenck placed a conference call to Kay Kautz and in the presence of all members administered the oath of office for Secretary of RMC - CWA 7750, Kay Kautz.

Thank you to those taking an office letting our retired chapter continue. The past and present offices of President and Treasurer agreed to meet at Bellco to transfer responsibility, those include Arnie Schenck, Henry Hanna, Dennis Weide. and Elouise Leper. The Audit was brought up by Dennis Weide and notification of the Audit meeting will be held February 16, 2012 at the hall with Julie Burrows, Colleen Lackey and Elouise Leper.

Bob Smith inquired when dues for 2012 can be paid. The 2012 dues of $12.00 can be paid to the treasurer now. Dennis Weide said that dues were paid in advance by a member, as they paid double in 2011, it was dually noted by the new treasurer. George Winogrodzki stated that he will continue with confirmation for the Christmas Party at Mickey's and also with the camping trip on April 21st at Jackson Lake everyone making their own reservations.

Arnie Schenck said that anyone wanting to go on the Casino trip March 25th, 2012, please e-mail Arnie for confirmation. The price for the bus trip will be paid to the Moose Lodge in Northglenn.

Al Scott let us know that past steward, Tyree Fowler passed away, his services were last week. It was also stated that union sister Marge McCormick has health issues. If anyone has news like this please contact the union and the information will be passed around in a timely fashion. John Smerker stated that the RMC needs to have more activities for the retirees to improve membership. Other chapters have a retiree network on healthcare and transportation. A committee is in place to create events for the members to attend.

Arnie Schenck said that every RMC member is a member of the Alliance for Retired Americans, the dues are paid by the National and it is involved in these type of activities. Get on their web site and subscribe to get additional information.

President Henry Hanna is committed to working for the RMC now that it is officially remaining an active chapter. ARA (Alliance for Retired Americans) www.retiredamericans.org/ is an effective political group representing seniors. AARP is another group that supports retirees. Subscribe to the web sites if you want information, it is your choice. Henry has several meeting coming up and will report back to the members.

Bob Smith said he had a concern selling AT&T stocks the past year, IRS wants to justify the amount paid for the stock. Arnie Schenck said he has a contact that does taxes for several AT&T employees and has access to the AT&T stock tables that can be looked up on the internet. He will get this information and pass it to the members.

Max Farnsworth commented that everyone needs to bring in a new member, continue sharing information with each other concerning healthcare issues and money concerns as they arise. Continued discussion of ways to improve our membership and attendance of the meetings. A motion to adjourn was made by Dennis Weide with a second from Mary Drobnitch at 1:12 PM. The vote was 13-0-0 to adjourn. Respectfully submitted, Colleen Lackey, pro tem
